Have the brightest summer of your life.

Walt Disney World

Nightime's the right time

for Magic Kingdom Sun

When you visit the Magic Kingdom after the summer sun sets, there's even more of a magical feeling. Lights twinkle everywhere. It's cool. It's relaxed. You can enjoy the enchantment till 1 a.m. every night. And this summer there's a brand new reason to come after dark . . . a new attraction that's the brightest show in the World. And it happens only at night.

Presenting the Main Street Electrical Parade

Sparkle as you watch a fantasy of 140 bigger-than-life dancers, floats, creatures from the deep blue sea and your favorite Disney characters aglow in a half-million colored lights. There are giant butterflies beaming. The Blue Fairy sprinkling sparkling pixie dust. A lovable lion playing a carnival calliope. A 40-foot-long dragon breathing smoke. And much more. Every summer night at 9 and 11:30 p.m.

Delight in "Fantasy in the Sky" fireworks every summer night at 10 p.m.

Glow with the magic of six enchanted lands. Ride a double-decker bus down turn-of-the-century Main Street, U.S.A. outlined in lights. Or stroll to the old-fashioned bakery on the corner for a scrumptious evening snack. Dance with Mickey Mouse to the Dixieland tunes of the Mardi Gras Sound Company. Hug someone you love under the twinkling lights of Cinderella Castle. Take a nighttime trip to the stars on Space Mountain. Enjoy more than 45 attractions, and let the special nighttime spell of the Magic Kingdom warm your heart.

Gleam with happiness. You have till 1 a.m. every summer night to spend amidst all this enchantment, for regular admission prices.

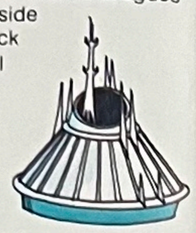
Magic Kingdom

In the Magic Kingdom there are six themed "lands" — Main Street, U.S.A.; Adventureland; Frontierland; Liberty Square; Fantasyland and Tomorrowland — each with its own restaurants, shops and attractions.

Along Main Street, U.S.A., ride a doubledecker bus, dine in a Victorian restaurant, visit a silent movie cinema, or listen to a barbershop quartet. Board the "Jungle Cruise" in Adventureland, listen to "Enchanted Tiki Birds" sing, and shop for exotic bargains at "The Traders of Timbuktu." Frontierland holds laughter at the "Country Bear Jamboree," and a wild west stage show (with a cast of dancing girls) in the "Diamond Horseshoe." Steam down the Rivers of America aboard a Liberty Square Riverboat, visit the "Hall of Presidents" — where, through the magic of Audio-Animatronics, all 38 presidents "come-to-life" on stage — then browse through Olde World Antiques and the Silversmith Shop. In Fantasyland, visit old friends Peter Pan, Dumbo, Snow White and Mickey Mouse in their delightful attractions — and take an exciting voyage, "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea." Journey to the future inside thrilling "Space Mountain," listen to a rock band while you dine, then glide above all Tomorrowland aboard the electro-magnetically powered "WEDway PeopleMover."



There are more than 45 attractions in the Magic Kingdom — ranging from horse-drawn trolley rides to hurling journeys through space or visits with ghosts in a haunted mansion. A ticket coupon (designated from "A" to "E") is necessary for admission to most attractions. Some attractions are complimentary.

Most guests spend two days visiting the attractions and exploring the 70 shops and restaurants in the six lands. A variety of bands stroll throughout the Magic Kingdom, playing every kind of music from Dixieland jazz to a country-western revue. And Mickey and Minnie, Winnie the Pooh, Goofy, Donald Duck and all the Disney favorites are waiting to shake a hand and share the fun of the Magic Kingdom.

Polynesian Village Resort Hotel

South Seas Island atmosphere surrounds eight native longhouses containing nearly 500 guest rooms, in the Polynesian Village. White, sandy shores along Papeete Bay are inviting for sunbathers and swimmers, while boaters enjoy a wide variety of water recreation on the lake. A swimming pool with its own tropical waterfall is situated among the tropical foliage and flaming Tiki torches.

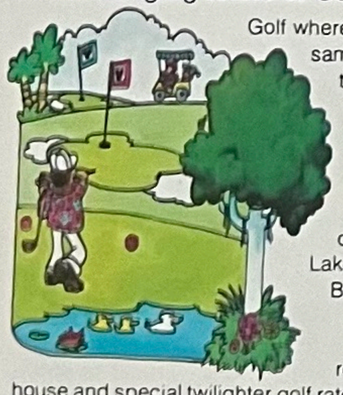
The Great Ceremonial House features six restaurants and lounges — from the Barefoot Snack Bar to the elegant Papeete Bay Verandah — and the beach-side Luau Cove is the site for nightly luau feasts.

Golf Resort

Located just steps from the greens of the championship Palm and Magnolia courses, the Golf Resort Hotel provides 151 luxurious accommodations. Additionally, there are putting greens and driving ranges, plus two lighted tennis courts and a swimming pool.

The Trophy Room features family dining in a country-club atmosphere.

54 Challenging Holes of Golf

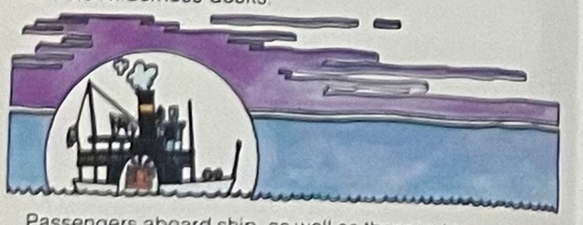


Golf where the pros golf. Play the same holes that challenge the pros in the PGA National Team Championship each year: the Palm and Magnolia courses at the Golf Resort. Or, try your skills on our third course at Lake Buena Vista.

Both locations feature driving ranges, practice greens, club and shoe rental, pro shop, club-house and special twilighter golf rates. All courses are open to the public. Call (305) 824-2200 for tee-off times.

Moonlight Magic

Mood music, cocktails and twinkling nighttime scenery set the stage for a romantic Moonlight Cruise, a leisurely grand-circle tour around the Waters of the World aboard an authentic side-wheel steamship. Cruises depart each evening from the Polynesian Village, Contemporary Resort and Fort Wilderness docks.



Passengers aboard ship, as well as those ashore, may also view the sparkling, musical Electrical Water Pageant. King Neptune and his creatures from "the deep" form a fantastic procession of leaping dolphins and smiling sea serpents as they travel across the darkened waters of Bay Lake and the Seven Seas Lagoon.

Transportation

Traveling to the far corners of the World is no problem here! The Walt Disney World transportation system can take our guests anyplace they'd like to go.

A Walt Disney World transportation ticket entitles day guests to an entire day and evening's use of the monorails, ferryboats and motor coaches connecting the Magic Kingdom and the four resorts. Going to a luau is as easy as boarding a monorail! Take a motor coach to play 18-holes at the Golf Resort. Ride a monorail to dinner at the Contemporary Resort — even stay late for a nightcap at Captain Cook's Hideaway in the Polynesian Village — and still find a motor coach waiting to transport guests back to the main parking area.

Guests who wish to return to the Magic Kingdom later the same day should have their hand stamped before exiting for readmission without additional charge.

As an additional value, Walt Disney World resort guests receive unlimited, complimentary use of the entire transportation system, including monorails, ferryboats, motor launches and motor coaches, during their stay. This also includes complimentary shuttle bus service to the Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista.

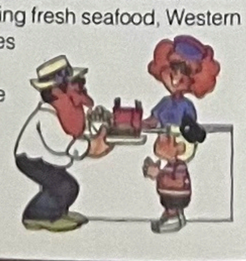
Dining

When it's time to eat, choose from over half-a-hundred Walt Disney World restaurants. Begin with a scrumptuous breakfast buffet at one of our resorts. Or, have pancakes and eggs in the Town Square Cafe on Main Street, U.S.A. On Sunday mornings, the Contemporary Resort's Top of the World restaurant hosts a Champagne Brunch.

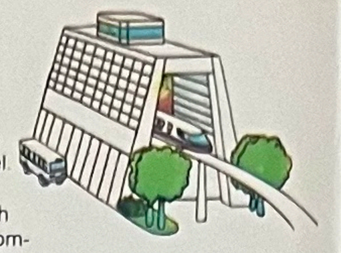
In the Magic Kingdom, there are 31 themed restaurants — from historic Liberty Tree Tavern to King Stefan's Banquet Hall in Cinderella Castle. At lunchtime, have a wild west feast at the Trail's End Buffeteria in Fort Wilderness. Or, sample some island cuisine at the Coral Isle Cafe at the Polynesian Village. More family dining spots include the fourth-floor restaurants of the Contemporary Resort or Heidelberger's Deli at the Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista.

For an elegant dinner, savor Roast Rack of Lamb at the Lake Buena Vista Club, Steak Diane at the Gulf Coast Room (Contemporary Resort), or Beef Bora Bora at the Papeeta Bay Verandah (Polynesian Village). For a truly once-in-a-lifetime dining experience, come aboard the Empress Lilly at the Walt Disney World Village Dock. She's an authentic 1880's Mississippi steamboat serving fresh seafood, Western beef and French Gourmet delicacies in three elegant dining salons.

Of course, there is also a wide variety of Walt Disney World restaurants perfect for a casual family supper.



Contemporary Resort Hotel



Sleek monorails glide through the spectacular Grand Canyon Concourse of the Contemporary Resort Hotel. The 15-story A-frame Tower and adjacent North and South Garden wings on Bay Lake comprise Walt Disney World's 1046-room "futuristic" hotel. Ranging from the Top of the World supper club to the Sand Bar on the beach, 11 different restaurants and lounges provide a variety of food and refreshment.

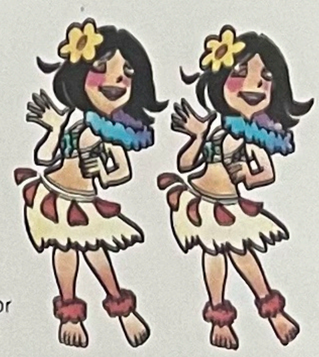
Popular recreational activities include boating and swimming along the white-sand beaches of the 400-acre Bay Lake. In addition, two pools and four tennis courts are available for fun.

Outdoor Recreation

Lovers of the outdoors enjoy a variety of recreation throughout Walt Disney World. Hiking down nature trails, fishing and canoeing along shady canals, bicycling on quiet roadways and chugging through the forest on an authentic steam train are great ways to spend a day at Fort Wilderness.

Walt Disney World resort guests may swim along 4½ miles of sandy beaches and enjoy a variety of boating activities on Bay Lake and the Seven Seas Lagoon. Mini-speedboats called Aqua Larks, "people-powered" Pedal Boats, and electrically powered Bob-A-Rounds provide hours of boating fun. Sunfish and Hobie Cat sailboats dot the water on breezy days, and adventure-some guests enjoy water skiing anytime.

Dinner Shows



When the family wants a special "night out," Walt Disney World provides three distinctive dinner shows — for just Mom and Dad, or for the entire family.

Enjoy a breathtaking panorama of the Vacation Kingdom aglow, have a great meal and be entertained by top-name celebrities at the Top of the World supper club. (Coats for gentlemen, please.) Two dinner shows nightly at the Contemporary Resort Hotel. Call (305) 824-1000 for reservations. (May be made up to 30 days in advance.)

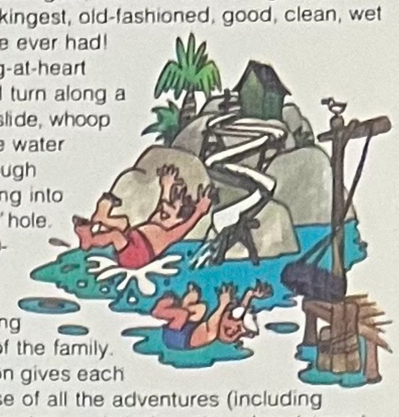
Sip Mai-Tai cocktails under the stars in a romantic lakeside cove. Then feast on a Polynesian banquet while native islanders entertain with traditional songs and fire dances. Two luaus nightly at the Polynesian Village Luau Cove. Call (305) 824-8000 for reservations. (May be made up to 60 days in advance.)

Have a hand-clappin,' foot-stompin' good time at the "Hoop-Dee-Doo Musical Revue." Chow down on barbecued ribs, fried chicken, apple pie, beer and sangria. "All you can eat and drink!" Two shows nightly at Pioneer Hall in Fort Wilderness. Call (305) 824-8000 for reservations. (May be made up to 60 days in advance.)

Walt Disney World dinner shows are presented nightly year-round and are open to all.

River Country

The World's newest country is the kersplashingest, kid laughingest, slippery slidingest, raft ridingest, rope swingingest, swan divingest, summer swimmingest, sun snoozingest, picnickingest, old-fashioned, good, clean, wet American fun you've ever had!



Young and young-at-heart swimmers twist and turn along a 260-foot-long water slide, whoop 'n holler down white water rapids and sail through the air on a tire swing into an old-time swimmin' hole.

There is also a 160-foot-long pool, a picnic area, and a nature trail-something for every member of the family.

A single admission gives each person unlimited use of all the adventures (including complimentary same-day readmission with a handstamp). River Country is located in Fort Wilderness and is open to all till 10 p.m. every summer night.

Fort Wilderness Campground

Bordering Bay Lake, the 650-acre Fort Wilderness Campground holds more than 800 fully equipped, secluded campsites. Each site includes a picnic table, an electrical outlet, a charcoal grill, water and a sanitary disposal system.

Campers enjoy swimming and boating activities in sparkling Bay Lake, as well as hiking, bicycling, canoeing and fishing. River Country and the Wilderness Line steam train attraction are popular with the entire family, too.

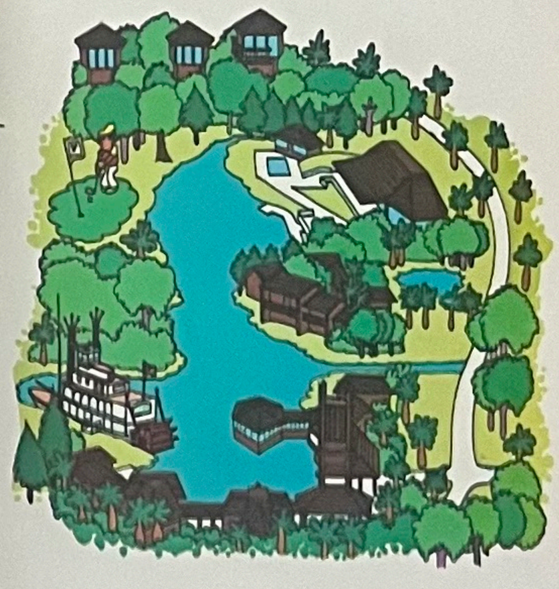
Nighttime activities include campfires under the stars with Walt Disney movies, canoe excursions and the "Hoop-Dee-Doo Musical Revue" at Pioneer Hall. Pioneer Hall also features a restaurant, snack bar and penny arcade; two trading posts provide all other essentials.

Treasure Island

Chart a course for Treasure Island, mates! Discover a tropical paradise like the one in Robert Louis Stevenson's classic adventure tale.

Admire beautiful birds among exotic plant life and walk through one of the world's largest outdoor aviaries.

Take a World Cruise aboard an authentic 19th-century side-wheeler steamship which departs from the Magic Kingdom dock. Learn the history and future plans of Walt Disney World on this leisurely voyage. Or, travel to the island via motor launches from the Contemporary Resort, Polynesian Village, Fort Wilderness and Magic Kingdom docks.



An Old World Village

Within minutes of the Magic Kingdom theme park is a Village with Old World friendliness and New World excitement. The Walt Disney World Village at Lake Buena Vista is truly the crossroads of the World.

Watch craftsmen working at pottery, crystal cutting and Toledo gold inlaying. Pick a freshly-baked pastry from the European bakery, or savor the flavors of international cheeses and meats. Try a fine wine. Browse through antiques from the four corners of the globe and hand-crafted gifts from the nearby countryside.

Discover a world of dining and entertainment, too. Delight in anything from oldtime ice cream parlor treats to New Orleans bouillabaisse, to fresh seafood, Western beef and French delicacies aboard the Empress Lilly riverboat. Live it up with Dixieland music, vaudeville comedy and homemade potato chips in her Baton Rouge Lounge. Or relax with famous artists of mellow jazz in the Village Lounge.

To reach the Village, take Interstate 4 to the Lake Buena Vista/SR 535 exit.

Tennis

Tennis anyone? At Walt Disney World, yes!

Walt Disney World guests may enjoy this popular sport on a total of nine professional courts at the Contemporary Resort, Golf Resort and Lake Buena Vista Club. Call each location for court reservations.
